- Trinity College London: Integrated Skills in English;
- Trinity College London: Integrated Skills in English (from ISE B1+);
- Pearson PTE Academic (with a score of at least 50)

a curricular supplement of English language is assigned at the interview.

1.3 Adequacy of personal preparation

The adequacy of the personal preparation referred to in Art. 6(2) of Ministerial Decree 270/2004 is not directly recognised and an interview is scheduled in accordance with the procedures set out in section 4 below INTERVIEW TO VERIFY THE ADEQUACY OF PERSONAL PREPARATION.

2. NUMBER OF PLACES

For the graduate degree programme in Food processing: innovation and tradition, places are open access, within the limits of available resources.

3. ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

The places on the graduate degree programme in Food processing: innovation and tradition are allocated following an interview to verify the adequacy of personal preparation, within the limits of available resources.

Applicants with an Italian qualification must use the Enrolment Portal, for the procedure to follow, please consult the Enrolment Portal User Guide.

Applicants with a foreign qualification or belonging to a religious order must comply with the provisions issued by the Ministry of University and Research, which have been made public in a specific note. For information on admission to the graduate degree programme in Food processing: innovation and tradition, candidates should contact the International Admissions Office and check the admission procedures at <https://international.unicatt.it/ucscinternationa-graduate-programs-2-year-graduate-degrees-in-english>

3.1. Interview to verify the adequacy of personal preparation

APPLICATION SUBMISSION: from 12 February 2024 to 4 December 2024

Candidates:

- possessing the curricular requirements under A;
- possessing all the curricular requirements under B;
- in the absence of certain curricular requirements under point B, within the limits indicated above;
- possess at least B1+ knowledge of the English language must book an interview to verify the adequacy of their personal preparation through the Enrolment Portal from 10:00 a.m. on 12/02/2024 until 11:59 p.m. on 4/12/2024.

Candidates will receive the outcome by e-mail at the end of the interview: if the outcome is positive, they can reserve their place in chronological order, paying the first instalment of university fees through the Enrolment Portal within 7 days, after which the candidate is considered to have withdrawn and loses access priority. If, on the other hand, the result is negative, they may not enrol in the programme (see section 4 INTERVIEW TO VERIFY THE ADEQUACY OF PERSONAL PREPARATION).

To know more about the interview booking and place reservation procedure, candidates must consult the Enrolment Portal User Guide

4. INTERVIEW TO VERIFY THE ADEQUACY OF PERSONAL PREPARATION

Without prejudice to the possession of the ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS, candidates must undergo an interview to verify the adequacy of their personal preparation aimed at ascertaining the possession of basic knowledge and skills, with particular reference to the subject areas that characterise the graduate degree programme. It will only be possible to book the interview once the English language level is at least B1+. The candidate is deemed suitable if he/she demonstrates sufficient basic knowledge of the required topics, is able to make connections between them, shows sufficient independence of judgement and is able to communicate in an appropriate language.

In the event that the interview is concluded positively but with evidence of knowledge gaps in the areas indicated in paragraph 1.1. CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS, curricular integrations will be assigned. The interview is conducted online, through the Microsoft TEAMS platform. No later than the day before the date of the interview, candidates receive the invitation by e-mail from the coordinating professor. During the interview, candidates must show a valid identity document and any documentation deemed useful for the purpose of verifying their study plan (e.g. course programmes taken during their three-year degree programme).

The outcome of the interview is communicated at the end of the interview. Successful candidates can reserve their place within the specified deadlines. Unsuccessful candidates cannot enrol in the programme. Those who were absent, however, can book a new interview to check the adequacy of their personal preparation through the Enrolment Portal.

For information on booking an interview and reserving a place through the Portal Enrolment you can consult the Enrolment Portal User Guide.

5. ENROLMENT AND PRE-ENROLMENT

Graduated applicants without curricular integrations, must book their place, by paying the first instalment of university tuition fees, by the deadlines indicated in paragraph 3 "ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES" and proceed to enrolment through the Enrolment Portal.

For those who reserve their place by 12 August 2024, the deadline for enrolment is 12 September 2024. If the place is reserved after 12 August 2024, the deadline for enrolment is 30 days from the date the place is reserved and no later than 31 December 2024.

Applicants should consult the Enrolment Portal Guide to learn about the Enrolment Portal User Guide.

Graduated applicants with curricular integrations and graduating candidates must reserve their place by paying the first instalment of university tuition fees through the Enrolment Portal by the deadlines indicated in paragraph 3 "ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES" and immediately proceed with pre-enrolment through the Enrolment Portal.

Pre-enrolment to the graduate degree programme, which must in any case take place no later than 31 December 2024, is accepted under reserve and is subject to:

- the fulfilment of the curricular integrations assigned, by the deadlines set out below;
- the attainment of the undergraduate degree within the deadlines envisaged by the admission procedures.

Pre-enrolled candidates reserve their place with the right to attend the graduate degree programme courses from their beginning. They are required to complete their enrolment immediately after graduation and/or completion of the curricular integrations.

To find out about the pre-enrolment and enrolment procedure candidates should consult the Enrolment Portal User Guide

Curricular integrations: Candidates who have received curricular integrations, once pre-enrolled, are required to complete them as of the September/October 2024 examination session and by the April 2025 examination session. Failure to pass these will affect enrolment in the graduate degree programme. Students may attend lectures on the subjects included in the study plan, but may not take the relevant examinations before the integration and finalisation of enrolment.

6. CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES OR SPECIFIC LEARNING DISORDERS (SLD)

Candidates with disabilities or Specific Learning Disorders (SLDs) are required to upload, in the appropriate profile section of the Enrolment Portal, their disability report or certificate relating to SLD.

For further information, candidates may contact the Services for Inclusion secretariat. Students with a certified disability equal to or greater than 66% and/or students with a recognised disability pursuant to art. 3, paragraph 1 or paragraph 3 of Law 104/1992 are entitled to total exemption from enrolment fees and university tuitions and are required to pay €100 when reserving a place on the programme. In order to obtain the exemption, the disability report must be uploaded in the appropriate section of the "Profile" in the Enrolment Portal.

7. TRANSFER FROM ANOTHER UNIVERSITY, SECOND DEGREE AND RESUMPTION OF CAREER

Candidates wishing to transfer from another university, enrol in a second degree or resume their university career must meet the ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS and comply with the deadlines and procedures set out in section 3 ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES.

Candidates must apply for admission to the graduate degree programme in Food processing: innovation and tradition via the Enrolment Portal. Following admission, it is necessary to reserve the place, making the payment of the first instalment and the secretarial fees, and to submit the application via the Enrolment Portal within the deadlines set out in section 3 ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES. Candidates who transfer from another university, after having reserved their place, may sit further examinations, at their university of origin, until they submit their Transfer Application, which must normally be submitted no later than 16 December 2024. The place is reserved when the submitted documentation is validated by the Student Services Centre.

The competent teaching structure will only assess examinations taken and recorded up to the submission of the Transfer Application.

Candidates enrolling for a second degree, after reserving their place by paying the first instalment and secretarial fees, must submit an Application for a Second Degree, which must normally be submitted no later than 31 December 2024. The degree from the home course must necessarily be obtained by 31 December 2024. The place is reserved when the submitted documentation is validated by the Student Services Centre.

Candidates resuming their careers, after having paid the first instalment and the secretarial fees, must submit an Application for Resumption of Career, which must normally be submitted no later than 16 December 2024. The place is reserved when the submitted documentation is validated by the Student Services Centre.

The year of admission will be assessed by the Faculty Council or a delegated committee, which will take into consideration the candidate's entire academic career. The place is reserved when the submitted documentation is validated by the Student Services Centre.

At least 30 validated ECTS are required for admission to the 2nd year of the programme.

8. PROGRAMME CHANGE WITHIN UNIVERSITÀ CATTOLICA

Candidates wishing to change programme/profile within Università Cattolica must meet the ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS and comply with the deadlines and procedures indicated in section 3 ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES.

Candidates must apply for admission to the graduate degree programme in Food processing: innovation and tradition via the Enrolment Portal.

Following admission to the programme, a place must be reserved by making the first instalment and secretarial fee payments and submitting the application via the Enrolment Portal within the deadlines set out in section 3 ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES.

After reserving a place, it is possible to take other examinations of the programme/profile of origin until the start of the Change procedure, which is done by clicking the "Proceed with Change" function in the Enrolment Portal, normally no later than 16 December 2024.

The competent teaching structure will only assess the examinations taken and recorded until the start of the Change procedure.

The year of admission will be assessed by the Faculty Council or a delegated committee, which will take into consideration the candidate's entire academic career.

At least 30 validated ECTS are required for admission to the 2nd year of the programme.
